

East Bay Depot for Creative Reuse Pickup and Delivery Driver Job Description

The East Bay Depot for Creative Reuse is seeking candidates to fill a driver position. We are a 501c3 non-profit committed to waste diversion, supplying teachers with free teaching supplies and providing local artists with cheap and sustainable materials.

We are seeking a bright, professional, outgoing, mature individual with exceptional customer service and communication skills. Duties include driving throughout the Bay Area (mainly East Bay), loading and unloading donated materials from customer's homes and businesses into our store and light maintenance around the store.

Moderate to heavy lifting required (50 pounds-truck has no lift)

Must have experience driving a small/midsize 15' commercial truck and a CLEAN driving record!

Flexible schedule; approximately 20 hours a week, Monday through Thursday, between 10am and 5pm.

Applicants are subject to a pre-employment drug screening. Benefits and vacation time accrual available after a 2-month introductory period.

We are an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity in our community; all qualified individuals are encouraged to apply.

To apply for this job, send a resume and a brief letter describing your interest in creative reuse and your relevant experience to jobs@creativereuse.org

No phone calls or resume drop-offs, please.
